Mayor Jones told the Commissioners that the county had received a check from the insurance company for the ambulance for $55,895.33. Mayor Jones ask the commissioners to authorize he and the County Court Clerk to accept the lowest and best bid and to allow the purchase of a second ambulance during the bid process to possibly save money. Mayor Jones said the funding is already in the budget.

Motion #7 by Snow, 2nd by Hughes to authorize Mayor Jones and the County Clerk to accept the lowest and best bid.

Motion Carried on Roll Call

Mayor Jones discussed with the Commissioners about USDA having funding for schools and jails, etc. USDA does request the funding to be on a 40-year note. Mayor Jones said the note could be paid off early with no penalties and if the interest rate decreased during the loan period the county would get the lower rate but if it increased it would stay the same.

Motion #8 by Petty, 2nd by Snow to authorize the County Mayor to start the application process for USDA funding.
